Principal's Message
2003-2004

Willard Middle School is a very special place, filled with wonderful students. Our diverse population provides a rich cultural experience for all. The Willard staff works hard to ensure that students experience an academically rigorous and exciting curriculum. Our educational focus is to provide students a love of learning, respect for diversity and a sense of community.

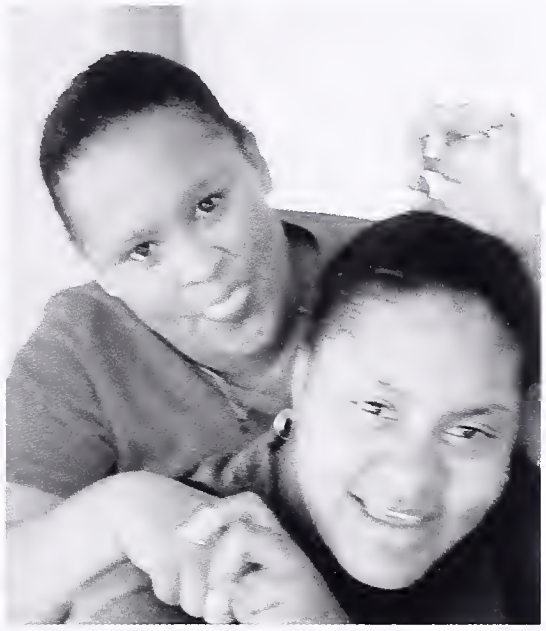
YOUTH SUPPORT PROGRAM

October 4, 2003 "Mentor/Mentee Kick-off BBQ"

10th Year Anniversary 1994 - 2004

The Youth Support Program has been matching up Willard Middle School students with UC Berkeley mentors for the past 10 years.



Each year we pair up over 90 kids from the school.

These are just a few of the mentees in our program who have participated and benefitted from our program.

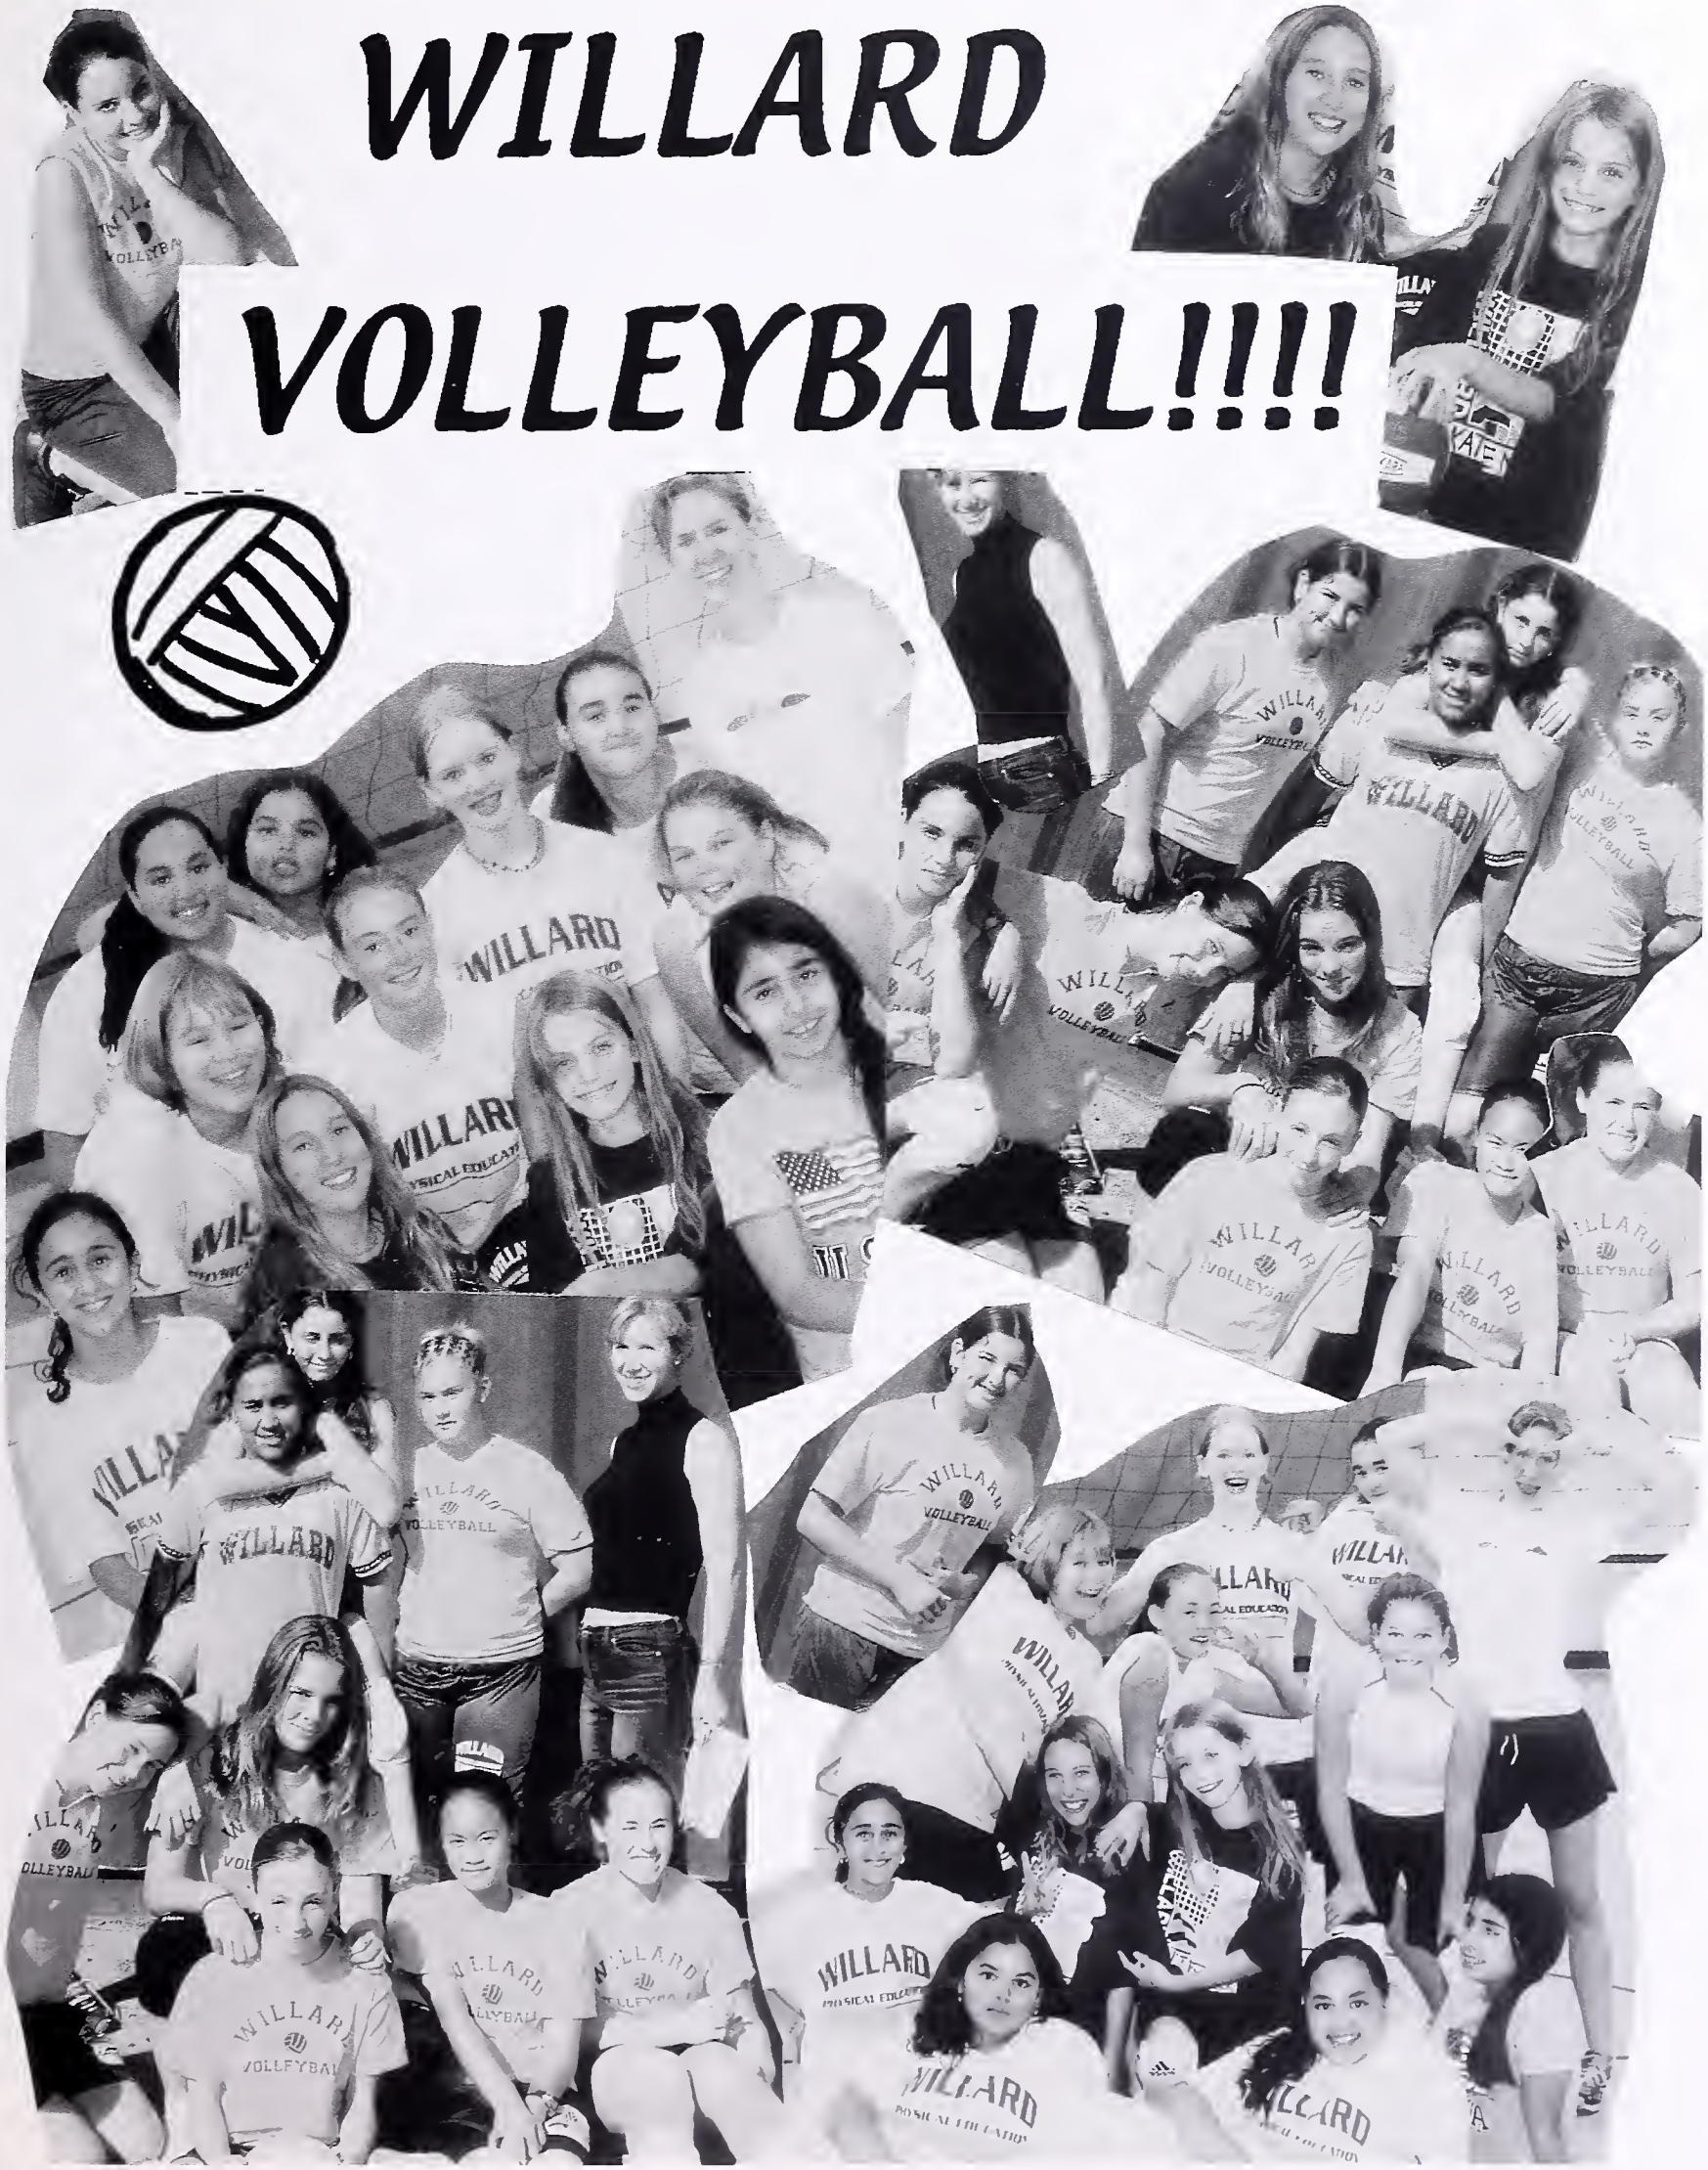
SPORTS

WILLARD VOLLEYBALL!!!!



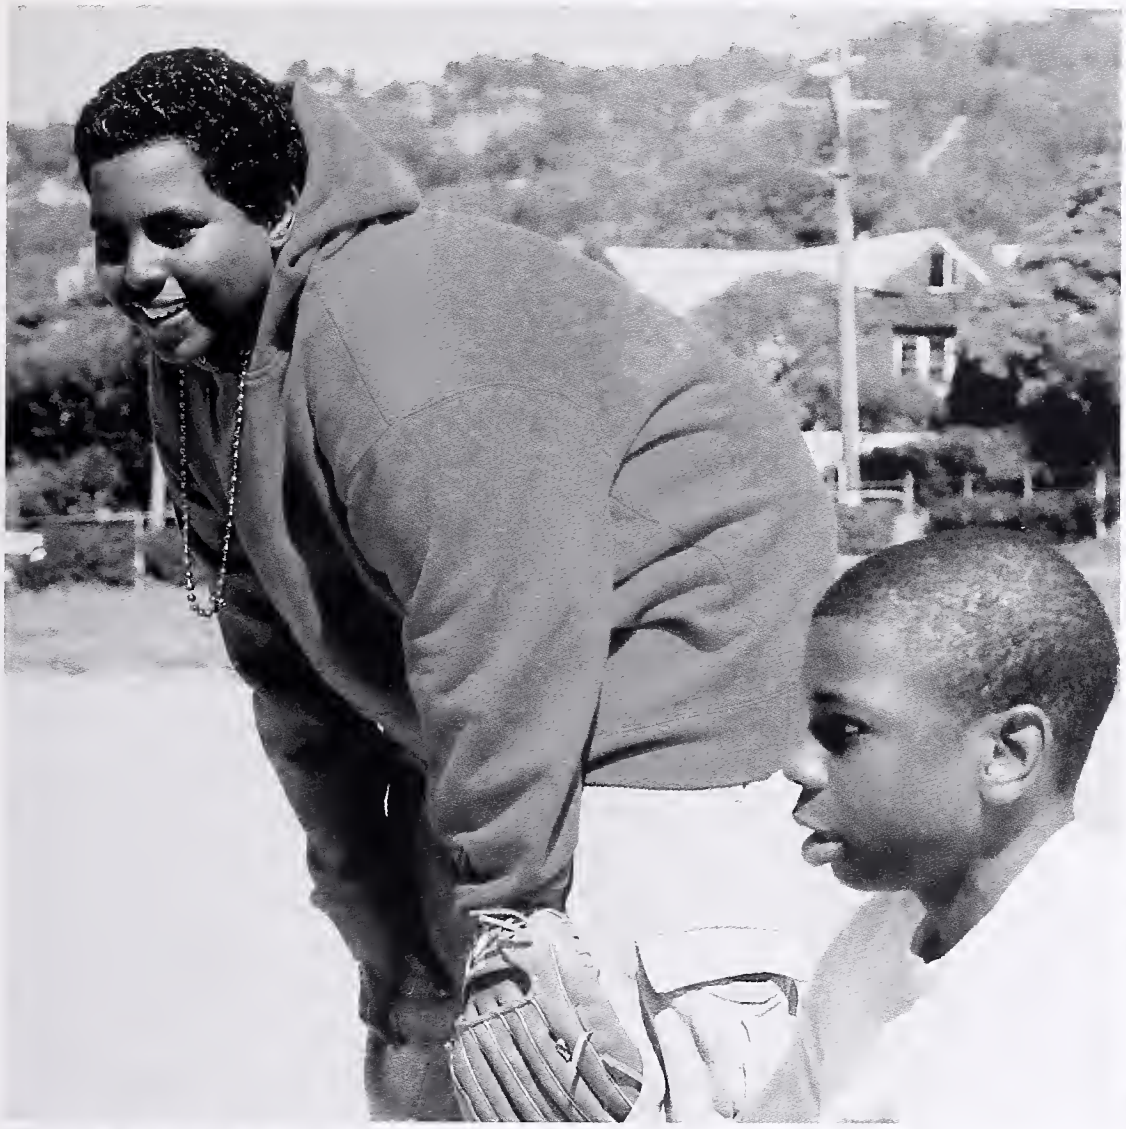
Willard Middle School Football Team

Hut, hut, HIKE! and the game begins.

Coach's infamous pep talk before the game.

Our offensive line looks pretty tough. The other schools' team looks wimpy compared to ours.

RUN HARRY RUN!!!



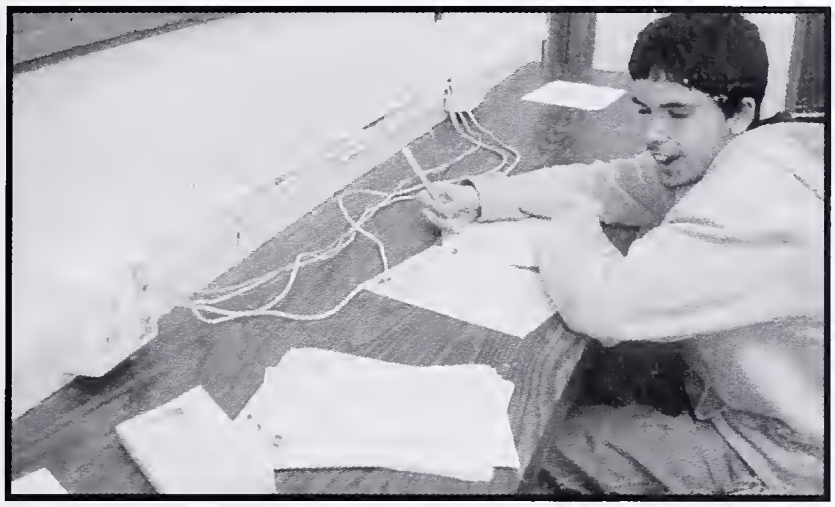
It Takes Two - Samuel Tsehaye smiles and Jeremiah Robinson pays attention to the game.

Swing batterbatter SWING! Christopher Houston takes his best shot.

Eduardo and Isreal show off their fancy footwork in hopes to hear the word "GOOOOOAAAAAAALLLLLLL" ringing in their ears.

THE WONDERFUL

WORLD OF WILLARD



Studious Students Studying

Some of the homework Willard teachers assign is so tough that Ray needs some extra help.

Diego's really serious about doing his homework.

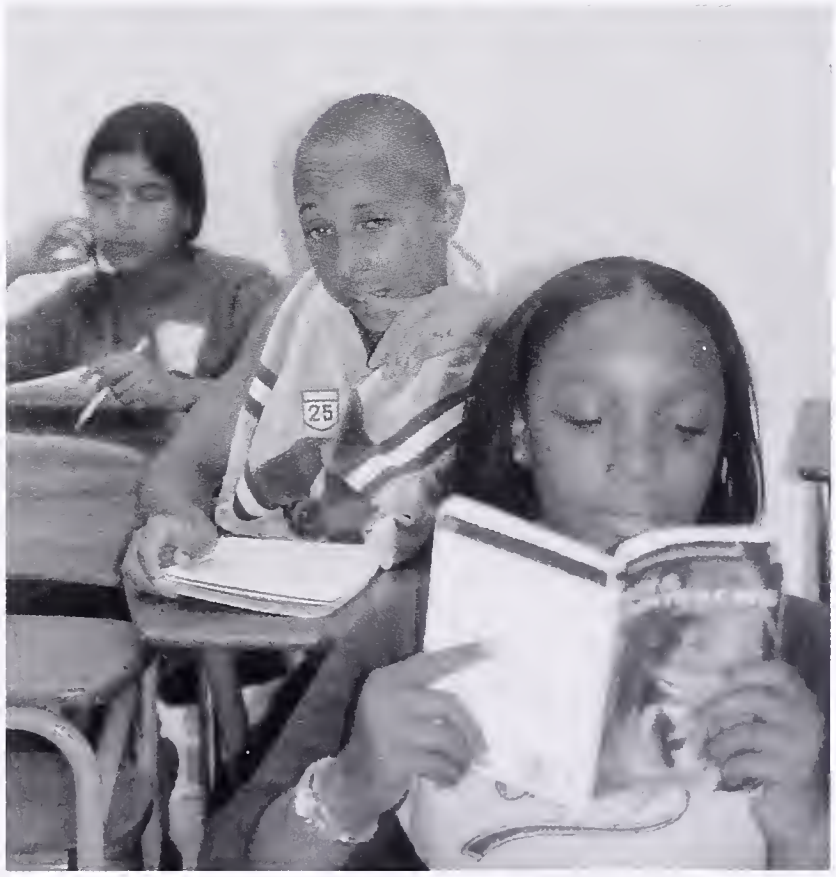
Are these girls working hard...or hardly working?

Willard students are great working together in teams.

...or not

Sweatshop or a class? You tell me.

Some Willard students are so talented that they can read with their eyes shut.



These girls are smiling too much to be working too hard. Don't you know that you're not suppose to enjoy doing homework? That's why teachers assign it.

Are you pondering what I'm pondering?
